We Can Give You The Support You Need

Who We Are

All of our counselors are licensed professionals who hold at least a Masters Degree and have experience in their field. Our counseling services are professional, compassionate and confidential. Our counselors abide by the highest ethical standards and receive continuing education.

Counseling services are covered by health insurance, medical assistance, and in cases of no insurance, a sliding fee scale is used to determine cost of care.

Most counseling offices are open weekdays and evening appointments are also available. Please contact one of our four offices for more information.
