

CATHOLIC CHARITIES
of the DIOCESE OF LACROSSE
DEBTOR EDUCATION SERVICE AGREEMENT

Please read the following statement carefully to understand Catholic Charities' procedures. By signing at the bottom of this document I am stating that I have an understanding of the provisions.

1. I understand the agency is approved by the Executive Office of U.S. Trustees to issue certificates in compliance evidencing completion of a personal financial management instructional course in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code. Approval does not endorse or assure the quality of a Provider's services. Catholic Charities will provide a two hour debtor education session and a signed certificate indicating completion of this education session, as required by the Bankruptcy Code.
2. I understand that the debtor education session will be conducted by a certified consumer credit counselor or qualified consumer credit counselor and that the purpose of the debtor education services offered is to help me better develop and understand financial skills.
3. I understand that if I am dissatisfied, I can utilize the Complaint Resolution Process of Catholic Charities. A complaint form will be provided to me upon my request.
4. I hold the agency, its employees, agents and volunteers harmless from any claim, suit, action or demand of my creditors, myself or any other person resulting from the education session.
5. At sometime in the future, my information may be used for research and/or a neutral third party may contact me to request a confidential evaluation of the agency's services.
6. I understand that Catholic Charities does not pay or receive fees or other consideration for the referral of debtor students to or from Catholic Charities.
7. I acknowledge that the Catholic Charities of the Dioceses of La Crosse, Inc.'s Notice of Information Practices is available to me. I can obtain this document at the agencies website or by requesting one to be mailed to me.

"Nothing herein shall apply to actions or claims under the provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. Sec 101 et seq."

We provide compassionate service, support and advocacy for individuals of all faiths and heritages, without regard to race, gender, national origin, age, disability or economic status.

Financial Education Certificates

Everyone seeking discharge of debts via bankruptcy must complete financial education before the discharge is effective. Certificates will be provided upon session completion.

Education may be obtained on-line or in a group session

- Fees are per person. This means that if 2 certificates are needed for a joint filing, you will be charged 2 times the fee.
- Copy of photo ID must be sent with registration.
- Fee waivers available based on agency set guidelines. Agency guidelines are listed on our website, www.cclse.org, and may be provided upon request.
- Duplicate copies of your certificate may be requested if your certificate has been lost. A $15.00 charge will apply to reissue a certificate that has not expired within 180 days of issuing.

To register:

Fill out registration to the right, read and sign the Service Agreement on the back of the registration and send it along with payment and copy of photo ID to:
